-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --

Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 1-4, 7-9, and 12-13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Meersseman (6,744,477).

Regarding claim 1, Meersseman discloses a means for storing (see memories 8 and 13), a means for displaying (col. 3, lines 14-15), and a means for allowing (see col. 3, lines 31-57).

Regarding claim 2, see col. 3, lines 30-45.

Regarding claim 3, see col. 3, lines 16-19.

Regarding claim 4, see col. 3, lines 36-39.

Regarding claims 7 and 8, see col. 3, lines 66-67.

Regarding claim 9, see col. 3, lines 40-45.

Regarding claim 12, the memory 8 is intended be erased under different conditions (see col. 3, lines 35-44).

Regarding claim 13, see col. 3, lines 58-61.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claim 10 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Meerseman (6,744,477) in view of Klopfenstein et al. (6,985,190).

Regarding claim 10, Meerseman does not specify displaying the received signal quality on the screen as claimed. Klopfenstein, from the similar field of endeavor, teaches displaying signal strength of a television channel on a screen (Figure 6). By showing signal strength of all channels on the screen, the user can know what channels should be avoided in order to prevent signal disruptions. Hence, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention was made to include the signal strength displaying feature of Klopfenstein into Meerseman to perform the well known functions as claimed.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 5, 6 and 11 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

6. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
